

Census Field Supervisors 2027

The next Census of Population will be held during April and May 2027. This will be the first census to have both online and paper census forms. The Central Statistics Office is looking for people who have experience managing teams to work full-time on a temporary, fixed-purpose contract which will begin in January 2027 and finish in June 2027. Successful applicants will manage a team of Census Field Support Officers in your assigned district. The work will be challenging and varied.

- 466 Census Field Supervisors - annual equivalent salary €38,803

Census Field Supervisors are based in their homes throughout the country.

It should be noted that applications for the above positions can only be made online through census.ie from 9am on 7th September 2026. The closing date for receipt of applications is 2pm on 22nd September 2026, or when the total number of applications received reaches 3,000, whichever is the earlier.

Early application is advised.

Shortlisting will apply and it is hoped that interviews will be held in November 2026.

Further details are available on census.ie.

The competition for Field Support Officers (previously known as Enumerators) will open for applications in November 2026.
